14 March 2008

Dear Sir/Madam,

I wish to advise that the Government of Japan (Monbukagakusho) would like to offer the following scholarships to Australian citizens for study at Japanese universities.

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT (MONBUKAGAKUSHO) SCHOLARSHIP

RESEARCH CATEGORY FOR 2009

Applicants must be Australian citizens and graduates or final year university students who will graduate by the departure date and be under 35 years of age on 1 April 2009.

Application forms must be returned to the Embassy of Japan in Canberra by \textbf{Tuesday, 17 June 2008}. Examination of English and optional Japanese language examination will be held in \textbf{late June 2008}. Past example examinations are available on website: www.studyjapan.go.jp.

Interviews will be conducted for the short-listed applicants in late July – early August in Canberra, Sydney, Melbourne, Perth and Brisbane. (Examination may be held in Adelaide, Hobart, Townsville, Cairns and Darwin if there is a sufficient number of applicants.)

More details regarding the scholarships are available from the Embassy of Japan website: http://www.au.emb-japan.co.jp/e_web/Monbukagakusho.htm

It would be appreciated if you would attach this link in the most appropriate section of your organisation’s homepage.

If you have any further queries, or need more posters or in PDF form, please feel free to contact me or Ms. Eriko Prior at the Embassy on 02 6272 7268 or eriko.prior@japan.org.au.

Yours sincerely,

\begin{flushright}

Satoshi Shinki
First Secretary
Educational Affairs
\end{flushright}